OUR FEATURED COLLECTION IS AVAILABLE IN FINE ART PRINTS

Descriptions and Pricing

The Cannabis Museum collects evidence of the hidden history of human use of cannabis. We support our work through exhibits and the sale of museum quality photographic prints. These long-lasting images are designed to inform and educate those new to cannabis and surprise even the most experienced user. Available as a fine art paper prints, as a dye sublimation print on aluminium panels or as a durable block prints. We proudly source and manufacture these products in the United States.

Paper Photographic Prints

Our custom framed, fine art digital prints are produced to museum quality specifications. All printing is done on Hahnemuhle Photo Rag cotton fiber paper.

The images are printed 12" x 16" and matted with 16" x 20" archival paper mat. We glaze all of the prints with ultraviolet filtering acrylic to reduce the long term potential of fading. Archival acrylic is a lightweight, abrasion and break resistant alternative to glass.

Our hand finished picture frames are available in two natural hardwoods, ½" wide and 1 ¾" tall. The frames are certified as sustainable by the Forest Stewardship Council. FSC certification ensures that wood products come from well managed and harvested forests that provide lasting environmental, social and economic benefits.

The American natural maple contemporary profile has a minimal but durable finish allowing the woods natural beauty to show through.

Dye-sublimation digital printing aluminum

We like the clear detail of the dye sublimation prints on aluminum sheet for the difficult to photograph images of historic glass. Under high heat the digital sublimation image changes from a solid to a gas, infusing the prepared metal substrate. An advantage of the dye-sub process is that it produces a continuous tone photograph that recalls the porcelain signs of the early twentieth century. Light and durable, the fade resistant images should last for generations. They are an excellent choice for high traffic, public areas, dispensaries and medical offices.

Easy to maintain, they can be wiped clean with a damp cloth. A sturdy back support and attached wire, make hanging simple. With no need for mats or glazing, the metal seems to float an inch off the wall. Dye-sub prints are available in 12" x 18" and 20" x 30" inch formats.

Large Dye-sublimation Print on aluminum with back frame CHR-20×30, $279.50 each

Small Dye-sublimation Print on aluminum with back frame CHR-12×18, $137.50 each

Art Block Framed Prints

Art Blocks are produced from the same high resolution image as our other prints, but mounted to a durable substrate. The optically clear surface lamination means no glass or acrylic to be concerned with images on 12" x 18" dye-sublimation aluminum plates, with hanging system, including 100 Museum Compendium booklets.

1. The Forest Stewardship Council certified oak picture frame holds the image two inches off the wall for a dramatic presentation.

The small (8" x 12") or large (12"x16") images are excellent for group assemblies, and are favorites for museum visitors.
